UM CENTRAL BOARD
TO SPONSOR LIBRARY
BOOK FUND DRIVE

MISSOULA--

Central Board, the student governing body of the Associated Students of the University of Montana, will sponsor an intensive week-long fund raising campaign for University Library books beginning Monday (April 12).

Tables for student contributions will be located at the Library and the University Center. UM students will contact Missoula businesses for voluntary contributions.

Greg Beck, a University student from Libby, said "nearly 8,000 letters" have been sent to parents of University students to stimulate interest in the fund raising campaign. Beck said about 1,500 letters also will be sent soon to UM faculty and staff members.

George Oechsli (pronounced Oxlee), director of the UM Alumni Development Fund, said those interested in contributing to the book fund drive may send their contributions to the Alumni Office in care of the University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801.

"The Alumni Association is cooperating with University students to help them make the fund drive a complete success," Oechsli said.

University student organizations assisting with the fund drive include Central Board, Spurs, Bear Paws, Circle K, the Student Education Association, Alpha Phi Omega national service fraternity, Angel Flight, K-Dettes, social fraternities and sororities.

Spurs, sophomore women's honorary, will donate proceeds from its Sadie Hawkins Day Dance on April 23 to the book fund drive.
